

HEY STUDENTS!

There is a new opportunity to connect with your classmates! A student group has been set up on Facebook called ADULT EDUCATION.

The group is private, for Concordia Adult Education Students only. It was created for chatting, networking, and discussing issues. There are forums available with topics to discuss, or you can create new topics. This is a great opportunity for you to feel connected to each other and the university without leaving your computer! This is also a great place to improve technology skills and have fun on the net! Respectful discussions only, and treat the site as a public place.
