The hallways are busy with students rushing to classes and other activities. The second week of the 126th academic school is almost complete.

I enjoyed visiting with those of you that were able to attend the Orientation Weekend events. Please continue to call or email with your questions.

On the Horizon for Students Newsletter sent to students from CUW Administration

Dr. Ferry's office has sent out the first edition of "On the Horizon for Students" for the 126th academic year.

CUW Students have an opportunity to celebrate Grandparents Day

Concordia University Wisconsin is a sponsor for a "Grandparents Walk" which is in conjunction with Newcastle Place. The date of the event is Saturday, September 10, 2006. Residence of Newcastle will come to campus and be connected with a CUW student for the walk. Stay tuned for photos of the event.
