Annual Fund Update

Our Annual Fund Phone-a-thon is off to a great start this year! So far we have contacted over 7000 Alumni, Parents, and Friends of the University, updating them on all the activity and happenings on campus, and sharing with them how their blessings can continue to support the men and women of CUW. A team of students will be contacting you this semester sharing their experiences and informing you of all the exciting opportunities for you to be involved with at Concordia University Wisconsin.

Each year dedicated parents provide support through Concordia's Annual Fund with a wide range of initiatives such as student scholarships, innovative academic endeavors.

CUW may start a pharmacy school

Concordia's administration and governing boards are currently studying an opportunity to have a pharmacy school as part of the University's curriculum. The final decision will not be made until May of this year with the program possibly being ready by Fall of 2008.
