

PERSONAL ESSAY OUTLINE
MASTER OF SCIENCE IN ORGANIZATIONAL LEADERSHIP AND ADMINISTRATION (OLA)

The decision to pursue a Master of Science in Organizational Leadership and Administration is a life changing choice, and one which deserves the process of personal reflection. Using the questions below contemplate the journey ahead of you, the challenges, the potential rewards, the personal satisfaction this experience will bring and strategize on how you will be successful in completing the journey. This is your personal narrative, a time spent thinking, and perhaps a conversation starter with those in your life who will be on the journey with you!

1. What is your motivation for pursuing a Master of Science in Organizational Leadership and Administration?
2. How will a Master of Science in Organizational Leadership and Administration support you in your future as a leader?
3. Are you currently employed and if so in what area?
4. Please share what you believe are your professional and academic strengths?
5. Please consider what are your professional and academic areas of weakness?
6. How will you manage adding school into an already busy life?
7. Who will support you when times get stressful?
8. Please make sure your personal essay includes your Full Name; Title, if applicable; Mailing Address, City, State, Zip Code; Telephone Number; Email Address, and hand signature.