Bud Chumbley
Chief Executive Officer at Wisconsin Medical Society

Doctor Chumbley, the chief medical advisor for Wisconsin Medical Society Holdings, is a seasoned physician executive with 24 years of experience in complex multispecialty medical groups and integrated health care delivery systems. As a practicing OB/GYN and management consultant, he has worked for some of the largest health systems in the country, including Aspirus Network and Baylor Health Care System. He also has held leadership positions for organizations including the American Medical Association Regional Policy Board and the Wisconsin Collaborative for Healthcare Quality.

https://www.linkedin.com/in/clyde-bud-chumbley-md-mba-979082112/

Dr. Barbara McAneny
(Incoming President of the AMA)

Dr. Barbara L. McAneny, M.D. is a Co-founder of her multi-disciplinary oncology practice and manages the New Mexico Cancer Center. Dr. McAneny is a practicing oncologist. Dr. McAneny's medical leadership experience includes serving as president of the New Mexico Medical Society and the New Mexico Chapter of the American College of Physicians. She previously served on the American Society of Clinical Oncology (ASCO) Board of Directors and the Practicing Physicians' Advisory Council (PPAC), a congressionally designated physician committee that advises Health and Human Services on Medicare. She acts as chair of the AMA Council on Medical Service, serves on the Specialty and Service Society Governing Council and is the delegate for the ASCO. She serves as a Member of Advisory Board at RT Oncology Services Corporation. Dr. McAneny serves as a Trustee of American Medical Association (AMA).

http://www.barbaramcaneny.com/
Ted Nickel
Commissioner of Insurance for the State of Wisconsin

In addition to supervising the Office of the Commissioner of Insurance (OCI) staff and serving as the chief regulator of insurance, Commissioner Nickel serves as the final adjudicator of all administrative actions; co-vice chairs the Governor's Council on Financial Literacy; member of the Governor's Steering Committee on Autonomous and Connected Vehicle Testing and Deployment; supervises the Injured Patients and Families Compensation Fund, Local Government Property Insurance Fund, and State Life Insurance Fund; and serves on the Wisconsin Retirement Board.

https://oci.wi.gov/Pages/AboutOCI/MgmtStaff.aspx

Randy Marking
President, Innovative Benefit Solutions, Inc

Randy Marking is the President of the Innovative Benefit Solutions. His professional career began with CIGNA in Milwaukee Wisconsin where he held a sales position designed to assist employers with employee benefits, business succession, and estate planning. A Baraboo Wisconsin native, Randy holds a BS degree from Marquette University.

The IBSI of tomorrow melds best-in-class technology with best-in-class customer support. All IBSI clients, regardless of size, have access to paperless benefit workflows and our cutting edge tools to help them meet their benefit strategies.

https://www.linkedin.com/in/randy-marking-
Mr. Frye is president and owner of The Benefit Services Group, Inc. (BSG®), an employee benefit brokerage firm he co-founded in 1987. BSG serves nationwide employers in a wide variety of industries, consults for health care systems in Wisconsin and Illinois, and has won several regional "best workplace" awards, as well as the Better Business Bureau of Wisconsin 2010 Torch Award for Business Ethics and Integrity. Mr. Frye has served for over 30 years in various roles in the insurance and employee benefits industry. He offers clients the unique insight and creative solutions necessary to overcome their most sophisticated problems.

https://www.linkedin.com/in/geraldfrye/

Dr. Tim Bartholow is the VP and first Chief Medical Officer at WEA Trust. Before joining the Trust, Dr. Bartholow served as the Wisconsin Medical Society’s Chief Medical Officer for five years. In this role, he focused on physician and community engagement to promote change in the delivery and payment of health care. Prior to joining the Society staff in November 2008, Dr. Bartholow spent 16 years caring for patients at the Prairie Clinic in Sauk City, Wis., where he was one of 12 clinical owners and on EMR since 2003. He believes that organized and carefully articulated physician feedback is essential for systems to serve the goal of best care. In the late 1990s, he served as medical director for an independent physician association with 2-sided risk with more than 400 primary care providers, a precursor to ACOs.

https://www.linkedin.com/in/tim-bartholow-md-24877410/
Dick Vallin is the president of Advanced Manufacturing Technologies, Inc. He has more than 37 years military experience.

https://www.linkedin.com/in/richard-vallin-7b863114/
Ms. Sue Buettner has been President of QuadMed, LLC since April 2014. Ms Buettner served as the President of Aurora Health Ventures, the for-profit division that manages Aurora’s retail clinics, pharmacies, vision centers, mobile diagnostics and imaging services and temporary staffing services. She served as a Senior Vice President of Aurora Health Care. She has more than 20 years of demonstrated healthcare industry experience.

https://www.linkedin.com/in/sue-buettner-44a4a11/

Jim Temmer is the President/CEO at Better Business Bureau Serving Wisconsin.

He has more than 20 years experience leading mission-driven nonprofits and he is passionate about integrity and ethics. These two elements combine in his service to the BBB.

https://www.linkedin.com/in/james-temmer-75540a7/
Dr. John R. Raymond, Sr. is President and CEO of the Medical College of Wisconsin. He assumed his position as the College’s sixth president on July 1, 2010. Dr. Raymond joined the Medical College from the Medical University of South Carolina (MUSC), where he served as Vice President for Academic Affairs and Provost.

Previously, Dr. Raymond held the positions of Vice President for Academic Affairs and Provost for the public, freestanding Medical University in South Carolina.

https://www.linkedin.com/in/john-raymond-b458544/

Alexander Kempe spent eighteen years working for GE, the last fourteen years of which was with GE Healthcare (GEHC) in a number of Strategic, Operational and Financial leadership positions in the U.S. and Europe. He is the former Director of Strategic Alliances & VP Home Health at GEHC and, during 2010-2014, drove the development of a new segment (Home Health) through the creation of a Joint Venture between GEHC and Intel Health (Care Innovations $250 million). Additionally, he managed GEHC’s investment portfolio (20 companies / $500 million) and created the office of External Funding, securing a contract with Qatar Foundation in 2013. Based on his extensive industry relationships and strong strategic and operational expertise, Alexander Kempe will focus on deal sourcing for 37celsius and business expansion and integration of its portfolio companies.

https://www.linkedin.com/in/alexander-kempe-52530a7/
Eric Haberichter
Co-Founder, Chairman, and Chief Executive Officer Access HealthNet

Eric Haberichter has more than 25 years of healthcare, management and entrepreneurial experience as a highly motivated, mission-driven innovator and problem solver focused on improving the delivery and sustainability of health businesses.

He has worked closely with employers, brokers, payers, TPAs, and medical practices to lower costs, increase quality and improve patient satisfaction. In 2013, he founded NewAmerica Health Strategies, LLC, a medical business consulting firm dedicated to creating value in healthcare. He was joined by Jim Kolb and Leslie Kolowith, and their experiences in serving the needs of technology start-ups and national networks aided in more fully developing the concept of Access HealthNet and its proprietary technology solution, The Super Option.

https://www.linkedin.com/in/eric-haberichter-23138516/

Craig Schedler has served as a Venture Partner with Northwestern Mutual Future Ventures since its founding. Prior to his current role, Craig was a Director in the Corporate Strategy function at Northwestern Mutual. In this role he was responsible for leading the team which provided competitive analysis on the company’s current competitive threats and opportunities. Much of his work focused on leading the organization in developing a thorough understanding of how the strategic actions of current and emerging competitors affect Northwestern Mutual. Prior to joining Northwestern Mutual, Craig was a member of the healthcare investment banking team at B.C. Ziegler and Company executing both merger and acquisition and capital markets transactions on behalf of clients nationwide.

https://www.linkedin.com/in/craig-schedler-620a2b/
Before joining Continental Benefits, Jeff spent 20 years at Aetna, where he held numerous senior leadership roles during his tenure. Most recently, he was Senior Vice President, responsible for the Public Sector and Labor Union markets in two-thirds of the United States. Jeff’s main focus at Aetna centered on providing innovative healthcare and benefit solution for his clients.

Under Jeff’s leadership, Continental Benefits is demonstrating to employers how the confluence of health care innovation, savings, creativity and superior customer service can be provided through one company. In fact, we are laser focused on redefining the industry standard for what employers, and other entities that offer coverage, should always expect.

https://www.linkedin.com/in/jeff-bernhard-a3ba854/
David Contorno is President of Lake Norman Benefits, now part of the Hilb Group and one of the employee benefit practice leaders inside this now top 40 largest insurance agency. As a native of New York, David began his career in the insurance industry at the age of 14 and has since become a leading expert in the realm of employee benefits over the last 21 years. The Hilb Group continues to grow organically by ensuring all management is handled locally, providing top notch solutions and supports, and through strategic acquisitions.

https://www.linkedin.com/in/dcontorno/

Dave Chase is the creator of the Health Rosetta and cofounder of the Health Rosetta Institute and Health Rosetta Group. He was also CEO/Co-founder of Avado, a digital health company acquired by & integrated into WebMD & Medscape (the most widely used healthcare professional site). The Health Rosetta is the blueprint for purchasing healthcare wisely, sourced from real life experience implementing practical, non-partisan solutions. Chase was named one of the most influential people in Digital Health because of his entrepreneurial success, speaking, and writing.

https://www.linkedin.com/in/chasedave/
Al Lewis
CEO at Quizzify

Al Lewis taught economics at Harvard and now runs the leading employee health education company, Quizzify. He is well-known as the industry’s most visible contributor to and interviewee for the Wall Street Journal and New York Times and other publications, and as author of several nationally recognized trade-bestselling books on population health economics. At the Summit, he will be announcing a $4 million dollar reward for any employer or vendor who can show wellness doesn’t lose money, along with other prizes, including a chance to win an all-expense paid week at Martha’s Vineyard for submitting the best question, as voted by the attendees at the Summit.

https://www.linkedin.com/in/al-lewis-57963/

Dan Sem
Dean & Director, Rx Think Tank

Dr. Sem has over 20 years of experience in healthcare entrepreneurship and innovation, first in the biotechnology industry, then in academia. He is the Dean of Business at Concordia University, and Director of the Remedium exchange (RX) Think Tank. Dr. Sem has over 60 published papers and book chapters, 10 issued patents, and has co-founded several companies. He received his B.S. degree from UW-Milwaukee, his PhD from UW-Madison (1990), He also has a MBA and JD degrees from Marquette.

https://www.linkedin.com/in/daniel-sem-81566a7/
We need to incentivize, educate and empower patients and physicians to make healthcare purchase decisions.