

Concordia Servant Leader Roundtable

Concordia University 12800 N Lake Shore Dr., Mequon, WI 53097

Join us and become part of the "wisdom in the room."

Thursday, December 13, 2018 Characteristics of Servant Leadership: Altruism

"Altruism was described as being others orientated, selfless, and having the desire to positively influence and helping others become better in life by serving their needs consistently. This behaviour is extended to make a positive difference, not only in people, but also in organizations."

-Coetzer, Bussin and Geldenhuys, 2017

2nd Thursday of each month from 7:30-8:30am

Future Dates: January 10, February 14, and March 14

Please register to let us know you are coming:

<http://bit.ly/concordiaroundtable>

We provide coffee.

How to find the meeting once you are on campus: Map on reverse

1. When arriving on campus off Highland Blvd, please park in Parking Lot A or B near the Administration Building which faces the lake.
2. Enter through the Main Entrance of the Administration building.
3. Go through the double doors and take the first right near the stairwell.
4. Continue walking until you see the sign for the Lakeshore Room on your right.

Questions? Contact the Concordia Coordinators:
Michelle Wagner 262 243 4339 michelle.wagner@cuw.edu
Elizabeth Evans 262 243 4283 elizabeth.evans@cuw.edu

CONCORDIA UNIVERSITY

W I S C O N S I N

Campus Map

