Course Description:

REL 201 THE OLD TESTAMENT is an overview of the Old Testament intended to acquaint the student with its background, content, and messages. This introductory course satisfies the core curriculum requirement for Bible content, but students who take it must also take REL 203 New Testament elsewhere in their programs. It is required for students in a church-work program. 3 credit hours.

Grading

Shared Discussions (3 per unit)	75%
Written Assignment Questions (5 per unit)	25%

Required Resources

- Students will need a study Bible. The Lutheran Study Bible is recommended. A contemporary translation such as the New International Version or the English Standard Version is expected.
- Video lectures by Dr. Paavola are in weeks 1, 3, 5, 7, 9, 11, 13, and 15
- Students read articles by various authors in weeks 2, 4, 6, 8, 10, 12, and 14
- The Concordia University Library database, ATLA
- Online resources biblegateway.com and americanbible.org.

Course Units: The course has eight units

- units 1-7: two weeks each
- unit 8: one week

Each unit involves readings from the Bible and other texts, three discussion questions to be shared with others, and five questions whose answers are shared only with the instructor.

Shared Discussions: Posted answers should be 7-8 sentences. Replies to the posts of others should be about 4 sentences in length.

Written Assignment Questions: There are five private discussion questions for each unit read only by the instructor. These are to be 4-5 sentences long each.

Counts as... REL 201 satisfies the core curriculum requirement for Bible content. Students must also take REL 203 New Testament.

- It runs best in Firefox or Chrome.
- Assignments are posted using the Drop Box feature in Blackboard

Course Schedule

For weeks 1, 3, 5, 7, 9, 11, 13 and 15 there is extensive reading in the Old Testament. You would be wise to plan accordingly and do some of this reading in the previous week when the reading assignment is shorter.

Please post your initial answer to the discussion questions as early in the week as possible as this gives others the most time to comment on your good ideas.

Visit the online course 3-4 times a week to play an active role in these discussions.
