

ENG104: INTRODUCTION TO WRITING

Course Overview: This is a one semester inquiry based writing course designed for the student with a good background in writing. This course will focus on the skills, attitudes, knowledge and habits of mind of successful writers. It will equip students to tackle different writing-related problems, both in and out of academic settings.

By framing writing as an act of thinking, this course asks students to critically process information and share their own point of view in return. Additionally, students will hone their research skills using a variety of resources, including their own field work, to support, challenge and develop their thinking.

13 credits

Grading:

Discussions	15%
Reflection journal	20%
Writing projects	30%
Writing portfolio	35%

Attendance:

Attendance is recorded for each discussion or assignment that is submitted. Students are encouraged to log on about 4 times per week and dedicate about 6 hours each week to their coursework.

Required text: The Writer's Practice: Building Confidence in Your Nonfiction Writing by John Warner (Feb 5, 2019), ISBN: 9780143133155.
